SALARY RANGE: $4255 - $5172

COMPETITION LIMITED TO STATE EMPLOYEES

Applicants must have a permanent civil service appointment with the Air Resources Board within the past three years and/or the final filing date.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION

NOTE: All applicants must meet the education and/or experience requirements for this examination by the final filing date.

Qualifying experience may be combined on a proportionate basis if the requirements stated below include more than one pattern and are distinguished as "Either" I, "or" II, "or" III, etc. For example, candidates possessing qualifying experience amounting to 50% of the required time of Pattern I, and additional experience amounting to 50% of the required time of Pattern II, may be admitted to an examination as meeting 100% of the overall experience requirement.

Experience applicable to one of the following patterns may be combined on a proportional basis with experience applicable to the other pattern to meet the total experience requirements, provided that the combined qualifying experience totals at least 30 months. Education may not be used to reduce this 30-month limit.

EITHER I

One year of experience in the California state service performing the duties of a Staff Services Analyst, (Range C). (Persons applying experience toward this pattern must have had a full-time assignment in California state service preparing, justifying and analyzing, or controlling and administering budgets or budgetary programs.)

OR II

Experience: Three years of progressively responsible experience with duties involving the preparation, justification, and analysis, or the control and administration of a budget or budgetary program. (Experience in California state service applied toward this pattern must include one year of experience performing duties comparable in level of responsibility of a Staff Services Analyst, Range C.) (One year of graduate work in public or business administration, industrial relations, psychology, law, political science or a related field may be substituted for six months of the required experience.)

AND

Education: Equivalent to graduation from college. (Additional qualifying experience may be substituted for the required education on a year-for-year basis.) (Promotional candidates who are within six months of satisfying the experience requirement for this class will be admitted to the examination, but they must fully meet the experience requirement before being eligible for appointment.)

THE POSITION

Under general direction, the Associate Budget Analyst performs the more responsible and complex technical budget work by coordinating and assisting in the development, preparation, administration, maintenance, review and control of a department's budget; provides consultative budget service to department management; and does other related work.

A position exists in Sacramento.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

This examination will utilize an evaluation of each candidate's experience and education compared to a standard developed from the class specification. For this reason, it is especially important that each candidate take special care in accurately and completely filling out their application. List all experience relevant to the "Requirements for Admittance to the Examination" shown on this announcement, even if that experience goes beyond the seven-year limit printed on the application. When completing the application include "to" and "from" dates (month/day/year), time base, civil service class titles and/or job titles from the private sector, relevant college or trade school education, certificates, licenses, etc., name(s) or institution(s) and completion dates. Please read the "Requirements for Admittance to the Examination" carefully to see what kind of information will be useful to the staff doing the evaluation.

In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70% must be attained.

FINAL FILING DATE: FEBRUARY 02, 2007

B. Ability to:

1. Develop various types of budget documents.
2. Analyze and solve difficult technical budget problems.
3. Establish and maintain cooperative relationships with control agency staff and others contacted in the work.
4. Speak and write effectively.
5. Analyze situations accurately and develop an effective course of action.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

A departmental eligibility list will be established for the California Air Resources Board. The list will be abolished 12 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period.

VETERANS PREFERENCE CREDITS and CAREER CREDITS are not granted in promotional examinations.

GENERAL INFORMATION

"The energy challenge facing California is real. Every Californian needs to take immediate action to reduce energy consumption. For a list of simple ways you can reduce demand and cut your energy costs, see our web-site at www.arb.ca.gov".

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Air Resources Board Exam Analyst, Bertie Mora at (916) 324-5289 three days prior to the written test date if they have not received their notice.

For an examination without a written feature it is the candidate's responsibility to contact the Air Resources Board Exam Analyst, Bertie Mora at (916) 324-5289 three weeks after the final filing date if they have not received a progress notice.

If a candidate's notice of oral interview or performance test fails to reach them prior to the day of the interview due to a verified postal error, they will be scheduled upon written request.

Applications are available at the State Personnel Board (SPB) offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department, the Air Resources Board and at SPB's website @ <http://www.spb.ca.gov>.

If you meet the requirements stated on the reverse, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on the other side of this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The Air Resources Board reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which the examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service law and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Examination Locations: When a written test is part of the examination, it will be given in such places in California as the number of candidates and conditions warrant. Ordinarily, oral interviews are scheduled in Sacramento and Los Angeles. However, locations of interviews may be extended as conditions warrant.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examinations, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) subdivisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multidepartmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in from one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin. In case of continuous testing examinations, names are merged into the appropriate eligible lists in order of final test scores (except as modified by veterans preference credits) regardless of the date of the test and the resulting eligible lists will be used only to fill vacancies in the area shown on the bulletin.

Promotional Examinations Only: Competition is limited to employees who have a civil service appointment. Under certain circumstances other employees may be allowed to compete under provisions of Rules 234, 235, and 235.2. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2, and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices or at the information counter of State Personnel Board offices.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Interview Scope: If an interview is conducted, in addition to the scope described above, the panel will consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight will be given to the breadth and recency of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than to the length of their experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of their recognition of their own training needs; their plans for self-development; and the progress they have made in their efforts toward self-development.

High School Equivalence: Equivalent to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways; 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
